The Battle at Perryville, Ky.

THE CASUALTIES, &c.

There were a great many men from Belmont County engaged in the battle at Perryville, Ky. The 15th, it is thought, was not in it. We have one company in the 50th, two in the 22d, and three in the 98th. We have no news from the 9th.

Lieut. Col. Cowen telegraphs that the Belmont boys in the 22d are "all right."

Col. Webster, of the 98th, commanding a brigade, was killed. Lieut. Col. Poor man's horse was shot under him, but he is uninjured except a slight hurt in falling from his horse when the animal was killed.

In Capt. Mitchell's company there were three killed—Geo. W. A. Thompson, John Cope, and — Hare. Geo. Thompson worked in our office, previous to going into the army. He was noble and generous to a fault, and as good a boy as ever carried a musket. He sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. He fills a soldier's grave, another life given up on the altar of his country to quell this infernal Slaveholders' Rebellion. Peace to his ashes.

Sheriff Loachery permits us to publish the following letter from his son. First Lieutenant in Capt. Cordon's Co., 98th Regt.:

CAMP NEAR PERRYVILLE, KY., Oct. 1.
DEAR FATHER: I expected that you would be uneasy concerning my fate in the late battle fought near this place. I have escaped without a scratch. The loss in our Company was very heavy. Two killed, two missing, and two very wounded.

Killed—John Rader and Michael Delaney.

Murdered—B. Evans, (supposed to be killed,) Edmund Wilson, (probably killed.)

Wounded—B. McKissick, dangerously in shoulder; Wm. Harmer, slightly in leg; N. Fisher, dangerously in body; Benj. Lane, fish wound in leg; Benj. Leach, do; A. Humphrey, in arm; Jess Corder, do; S. C. Green, do; A. Green, do; Jas. Creighton, N. Wilson, neck; (not dangerous,) Gen. J. A. Wheeler, hand; Henry A. Do, Wm. White, hip; E. R. Chandler, knee; Luke Tipton, hip; Abner Hunt, shoulder; Clark Wilkins, leg; J. A. Kemp, hip; Wm. Thoroberry, shoulder; W. McManis, leg and nose.

You will see by this that we suffered severely. It was a hard fight.

Webster, our gallant Col. was killed.—Also Geus, Jackson and Terrell.

All the other boys, I think, are safe. They all fought well. It is now dark, and I must stop.

Your Son,

W. M. LOCHARY.

AS THE WAY THE BUTTERNUTS TREAT A LOYAL SOLDIER.—The meanest and most cowardly assault made by the Butternuts of St. Clairsville during the campaign closed on Tuesday, was one made upon John H. Thompson, Union candidate for Recorder. On last Saturday night a wagon load of howling Rebels on their return from a meeting held by Ross Alexander and Chambers at Beech Hill, stopped before his door and gave "Three groans for Thompson."

This is the treatment a loyal soldier who served in the ranks through the Mexican War, and who again volunteered as a private in this war and fell at Shiloh, received at their hands. Yesterday they defeated him by a strict party vote for Recorder of the county; and whilst their drunken and treasonable shouts are announcing their great victory over this crippled soldier, the word is conveyed to his family and himself that his eldest son has been killed, whilst nobly defending the flag of his country at Perryville; but still the shout of victory goes up, and Butternut Democracy has groaned at and triumphed over John H. Thompson to their heart's content.

The Election.

The election in this county resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket, by majorities ranging from 892 to 135. The official vote will appear next week.

The majority against Bingham is 117.—Chambers majority is 82. Guernsey county gives Bingham 100. Harrison gives Bingham about 275. We have no report from Noble or Tuscarawas. White is, of course elected.

The official may vary from the above.

In the first Congressional District of this State Pendleton (Dem.) is re-elected. In the second District the Democrats claim the election of Long by 300. In the third District Gen. Schenck beats Vandallingham by 800. In the 7th District Cox is probably re-elected. Hamilton county gives about 1,000 Democratic majority.

Returns from Indiana indicate the election of seven Union Congressmen, and four Democrats.

Pennsylvania elects about fifteen Union Congressmen.

NO BOUNTY MONEY.—The Military Committee of Belmont county, have ordered Col. William Alexander, of Bridgeport, who has been appointed Paymaster, to pay to those who volunteered between Aug. 22d and 1st September last, into Companies raised in Belmont county, and to fill up old Regiments, ten dollar each.

LETTERS from Illinois predict that the Union Republican party will elect its State ticket, nine out of fourteen members of Congress, and the Legislature, which is to choose a Senator in place of Senator Brown.

The Supreme Court of the State of New York has issued a perpetual injunction against Eaton and Jenkins for counterfeiting Aver's Cathartic Pills, holding them responsible for the cruel imposition in what they have done and remanding them from further injury to the public. If any slave of our people can find another, he need not have to shield them from impotency, as it is the sick and suffering who are unable to protect themselves. A remedy is universally employed as Aver's Pill by all classes, both to cure and prevent disease, should it affect, have every security the law can afford, from counterfeit and imitation. [Cabinet, Schenectady.]
